Subject: Restriction of access to the SADPMR head office

Dear Client,

Due to a suspected COVID -19 case against one of the employees who may have come into contact with the other employees of the South African Diamond and Precious Metals Regulator (SADPMR), the walk-in services of the Regulator in the 251 Fox street, Johannesburg offices are temporarily suspended. Physical access to the building is restricted to allow the Regulator to comply with the necessary COVID-19 protocols.

Online services will remain available in order to ensure business continuity. Once the necessary protocols are followed and adhered to, the offices shall be reopened for public services.

The Regulator wishes to express its sincere apology for the inconvenience caused.

Yours sincerely

Cecil Khosa
Chief Executive Officer
